endless computer games? This might be your big chance! Why not look into it today?

Wildlife Watch is the action club for young environmentalists. You could join, simply by going to the website and finding your nearest group. What have you got to lose, (except a few pounds is weight, perhaps)?

Remember: to have the best time and most fun, you need to stay safe!

- DON'T work alone! Take a responsible adult along, or join Wildlife Watch.
- Let someone you trust know where you are going and what time you intend to be back.
- Do NOT enter ponds, streams and rivers without adult supervision!
- If you're likely to get wet or dirty, cover all scratches and cuts with plasters before you start.
- If you are using sharp edges or tools, make sure you have an adult to supervise.
- Follow the Countryside Code.
- Wash your hands thoroughly BEFORE you touch your mouth or food.

There's tons of stuff out there to help you discover more! Start by borrowing from your school or local library. Don't be afraid to ask for help, if you can't find what you want. Borrowing from your friends can help you to find out what you like best.

You never know what you might find out there!
mean!

OK, you won't find this, but you know what I

You'll still be amazed by what you will see in the countryside!

Why not contact
Durham Wildlife Trust and the Badger Group to see how you can get involved?
